First National Bank Minnesota Announces 2021 Promotions

St. Peter, Minn. – First National Bank Minnesota is proud to announce multiple promotions within the company in the wake of continued growth and success. Arianne Holicky, Debbie Glowicki, Jen Muchow, and Molly David were awarded promotions effective January, 2021.

“I feel very fortunate to lead such a talented team at First National Bank Minnesota,” said Mike Bresnahan, Chief Executive Officer of First National Bank Minnesota. “Each of these individuals exemplify our core values and are instrumental to First National Bank Minnesota’s continued success,” he added.

Arianne Holicky was named Chief Financial Officer. Holicky has been with First National Bank Minnesota since 2007, most recently serving as the Senior Operations Officer.

Debbie Glowicki was promoted to Lead Universal Banker in the Belle Plaine branch location. She has been with First National Bank Minnesota since 2016 and most recently served as the Teller Supervisor.

Jen Muchow was promoted to Universal Banker. Muchow started working as a Teller in the Gaylord location in October 2019.

Molly David was named Vice President, Human Resources. David began working as a Teller at First National Bank Minnesota in 2009 and has continued to advance her position in the Bank since that time.

First National Bank Minnesota is a locally owned community bank with four locations in Southern Minnesota, including St. Peter, Mankato, Gaylord and Belle Plaine. First National Bank Minnesota provides superior financial services including personal, business, and agricultural banking, along with wealth management services.
